

Canadian Whos Who: 1998

This Standard Canadian Reference Work is the Most Comprehensive and authoritative biographical source on notable living Canadians. Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society, or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life: business, academia, politics, sports, architecture, and the arts -- in fact, from every area of human activity. Biographees are given the opportunity twice a year to update their biographies so that all information is up to date and guaranteed accurate. In addition, between 1500 and 2000 new biographies are added to each new edition. Detailed entries give: date and place of birth, education, family details, career information, memberships, creative works, honours and awards, and full addresses. No other source provides such a wealth of information about Canadians most likely to be of interest to library users. Useful to students as a career and mentor guide, Canadian Whos Who is invaluable to everyone interested in Canadian culture and history. The complete text of all 15,000 biographies in the Canadian Whos Who 1998 is available on CD-ROM: Whoever, wherever, whenever: an outstanding reference source is now more useful than ever. Every school, household and library will find this an invaluable addition to their sources of general knowledge.
