

Brand New Home

Everything has a past. Sometimes the past is far more brutal, devastating, and unnerving than we ever thought it could be. A creak of the floorboards. A breath from the furnace. Suddenly, you realize something might be watching you in your own home. When good fortunes lead to a promotion for the patriarch of the family, the Johnsons must pick up and move to a suburban home in Ohio. Financially gifted, they find themselves living the great American dream when they are not only able to afford another house to call their own, but a brand new home still in the late stages of completion. Trouble arises when an eerie aura begins pulsating through the very structure of the house. Seeking to destroy the family, this malignant force seems to grow more powerful with each day passed. No ancient burial grounds, no poltergeist and no past lives lost within the house, what could be haunting the Johnsons Brand New Home? A sneaking and thought-provoking supernatural horror, Brand New Home takes you on a journey around the world and through time, urging the reader to connect the dots about the real roots of evil as it brings horror back home. Not all houses are haunted by ghosts and demons!
