

Under His Wings Mission Vietnam

This is a love story. It is not a love story between a man and woman. The missionaries who lived in Ban Me Thout were devoted to their love of God and their love of the Montagnards. Tet 1968 was coming. South and North Vietnam had a truce for the holidays. Eight missionaries in Ban Me Thuot were celebrating at home. Ruth Wilting loved her life, the people surrounding her and the Central Highlands of Vietnam. But the truce was a ruse, before Tet was over there would be martyrs. Behind the headlines are dramatic stories of love and devotion. In Under His Wings ~ Mission Vietnam you will discover: The little known story of the longest held American POWs in Vietnam. Insights into the birth of South Vietnam. The daily hardships of living 9,000 miles from home. True tales of working with the leprosy. Humane work done by the U.S. Military in Vietnam. Lives joyously spent working every day for God's glory. Expand your horizons, feed your soul and answer lingering questions as you read this explosive story. Ruth Wilting went to Vietnam in January 1954. Her love for God and the Montagnards has inspired many. Using Ruth's letters to family and friends Under His Wings - Mission Vietnam waits to inspire you. Dive into this exciting, true adventure!
