

Death in the House of Life

IN EGYPT NOTHING STAYS BURIED

Not tombs Not treasure

Not Evil FOR NOT EVERYTHING BURIED CAN DIE. A being older than the Sphinx wants what she buried long ago.

Her cursed husband wants to save her from herself. His friends, Mark Twain, Oscar Wilde, and Nikola Tesla, want to save him from his hopeless quest. It is 1895 Egypt: British Colonialism is committing suicide. Nationalism is sowing the seeds that will turn the Middle East into a maelstrom of hatred. Ancient Evil is biding its time to be released. And Captain Samuel McCord struggles to find some way to save his wife and his world that will not destroy both.
