

When Rabbit Howls

Truddi Chase began therapy to discover why she suffered from blackouts. What surfaced was terrifying: she was inhabited by the Troops-92 individual personalities. This groundbreaking true story is made all the more extraordinary in that it was written by the Troops themselves. What they reveal is a spellbinding descent into a personal hell-and an ultimate deliverance for the woman they became. Fascinating...unusual and very emotionally touching. (Dr. Cornelia Wilbur, the psychiatrist who treated Sybil) Extraordinary...A nightmarish story. (The Chicago Tribune) Startling...powerful. (The San Francisco Chronicle) Horrifying, compelling...extremely disturbing. (Psychology Today) Remarkable...alarmingly real and courageous. (Toronto Sun) Provocative reading...fascinating. (Library Journal) Searing...a truly moving and thought-provoking work...an uplifting and inspiring story of a survivor. (Sojourner: The Womens Forum)
